

Learn about Weather with two great recordings from The Weather Dude

#1 Sing Along with the Weather Dude

Ten catchy songs with activities to teach kids the basics of weather!

Compact Disc with Activity Book $14.98

Additional Activity Book $4.98

In a fully-produced recording, Nick Walker, best known for his work as on-camera meteorologist for The Weather Channel®, makes complicated concepts simple, singing ten fun original songs, each one an entertaining mini-lesson in meteorology. In styles ranging from light rock to light rap to ballads, Walker guides children through cloud types, rain, snow, wind and air pressure, thunderstorms, the seasons, the water cycle and weather forecasting. (Comes with accompanying activity book)

#2 NEW! Don't Get Scared, Just Get Prepared

Eleven Songs to get you ready for severe weather and have some fun doing it!

Compact Disc $11.98

Do you know someone who is afraid of thunderstorms, tornadoes or hurricanes? Do you want to get your family or students ready for severe weather in a fun way? In popular musical styles ranging from salsa to surf and be-bop to blues, Nick Walker gives young people the information they need to prepare for any kind of severe storm and feel safe.
